Subject: Thank you for support poor children .

On behalf of Jayati and TGUP, I would like to express our deepest gratitude for your gonerous support for children. Bal Sarathi, as a family have committed ourselves to rescue the most poverty stricken children of Nepal and providing them with free education, food, and health facilities. As a commitment to the society, Bal Sarathi has continuously reaching out to the unprivileged children living in the outskirts of Kathmandu valley. They belong to squatter's and poor family .The organization has been providing education to the children of these groups since many years. Today there are more than 100 students studying in the school and out of school. TGUP have supported us for children's books, stationery. Food and health. Thank you for sending us Rs.665516 for children. We hope to continuously gain your support in the future days to come as well.

Thank you once again.
