

What Students Say About TGUP

“I never felt I could actually do good in the world. Now I see that I can.”

~Katie Troxell, St. Francis High School

“This is the best thing I’ve ever done.”

~ Rachel Clark, Gunn High School

“I don’t think kids understand how much power they really have. If every one of us does just a little we really can change the world.”

~Emily Lippe, Pinewood High School

“It’s almost like we’re doing as much good for ourselves as we are for those who are getting the school.”

~Meaghan Neider, Sacred Heart High School

“For one dollar we built a school that will last for generations? It’s unreal.”

~Margaret Lewis, Los Altos High School

“It was fun, it was easy and everybody really felt like they had a sense of purpose.”

~Emma Anders, Burlingame High School

“Before, I was just a teenager with a dream. Now I’m actually leading others to help change the world.

~ Bernie Lim, St. Lucy’s Priory School

“This brought our school together like a family. THANK YOU.”

~Christine Lu, Evergreen Valley High School

“This has been the most meaningful experience of my high school career.

~Lauren Crum, Los Altos High School

What Teachers Say About TGUP

"This is the best service project we've ever done."

~ Steve Mills, Student Activities Director, Burlingame High School

"Our students run this. It's one of their favorite projects all year."

~ Brenda Dyckman, Egan Junior High School

"I'm very impressed. It's so easy to implement."

~ Sheila McLeod, Teacher, Centennial High School

"The Fundraiser in a Box is just what its name implies."

~ Julia Kennedy, Teacher, Golden Valley High School

"Our students really got into it."

~ Steve Wentzel, Principal, St. Paul's School

"The students love that they get tangible feedback on what they did."

~ Monte Pfyl, Leadership Teacher, TR Pollicita Middle School

"TGUP is one of the best student activities I've ever seen."

~ Cristy Dawson, Assistant Principal, Los Altos High School

"This is what we want our students to learn."

~ Stella Kidd, Activities Director, Stockdale High

"This is the most inspiring fundraiser we've ever done."

~ Victoria Duran, Student Activities Director, Evergreen Valley High School

"This is just a great idea."

~ Nancy Smith, Teacher, Jordan Middle School

"Every school in the country should be doing this."

~ Jaime Richards, Teacher, Mission San Jose High School

"The school was on fire. Every club, every group joined in."

~ Justin Velez, Activities Director, Gahr High School